Roles and Duties

Prefects play a vital part in the running of the School; assisting and supporting both staff and pupils.

The role of a Prefect falls into four main categories:

- Maintaining discipline
- Helping staff
- Supporting younger pupils
- Organising events

You may be a Prefect for one particular area in the school, but you will also be required to cover all four areas. It is important you, and the whole school community, are very clear about your role and duties:

- To act as a role model for students and promote the ethos of the school
- To maintain an atmosphere of friendly cooperation, discipline and unity in the school
- To wear the correct uniform at all times

Additional Duties

All prefects are required to perform certain additional duties such as supervising queues at times such as break time or at lunchtime. It is important that you know where and when you are on duty. A more extensive list can be obtained from house staff or a member of the Senior Management Team.

It is vital that you always turn up for your duties on time, that you execute your duty to the best of your ability and that you do not leave until the end of your duty time. If you fail to turn up to your duty you are letting yourself and fellow prefects down and weakening the Prefect system.

Leadership attributes

You might not see a direct link between leadership and being a prefect, but there is one. You will have been chosen as a prefect based on certain skills and qualities that you already have or for the potential that has been recognised in you. Many of these skills and qualities are common with leadership, such as: confidence, decisiveness and the ability to communicate effectively.

The Basic Skills of Outstanding Leadership

Integrity

Integrity means honesty and more. It refers to having strong internal guiding principles that one does not compromise. It means treating others, as you would wish to be treated. Integrity promotes trust, and not much is accomplished without trust.

Communication

Communication in the context of leadership refers to both interpersonal communications between the leader and followers and the overall flow of needed information throughout the organisation.

Leaders need to learn to be proficient in both the communication that informs and seeks out information (gives them a voice) and the communication that connects interpersonally with others.

Relationships

Networking is also a relationship skill. Relationships develop good interpersonal and group communication skills.

A leader who likes dealing with people issues, who can initiate and deepen relationships with others, has a great leadership advantage. This is a leader who can build a team and achieve impressive results.

Persuasion

The ability to influence others and cause them to move in a particular direction is a highly important skill in leadership. Your ability to be persuasive is directly related to how much people trust you and how good your communication and relationships are.

Adaptability

Adaptability and flexibility in not being bound by a plan are important success factors. The leader must move easily from one set of circumstances (the plan) to the next (if the plan is not going as expected) and take them all in their stride, even when the circumstances are unexpected. The good leader has to embrace change and see it as opportunity.

Teamwork

Teamwork is an important and often neglected part of being a prefect. A school does not simply have a number of individual students who are identified as prefects. There is more to it than that; it has a team of prefects who are part of a prefect system. No one person can do it all. That's why a team, comprised of others with different skill sets, is essential. A leader must know how to build and nurture such a team.

Decision-making

A leader must be able to wade through information, comprehend what is relevant, make a well-considered decision, and take action based on that decision. Making decisions too quickly or too slowly will impede your leadership effectiveness.

Key questions to ask yourself:

Integrity

How deep are your convictions on the things you believe in? What do you believe in SO MUCH that you will stand up to anyone about it? How much are you willing to compromise your important beliefs? To what extent do your behaviour and the choices you make align with your guiding values and principles?

Communication

How much and how willingly do you speak out and keep information flowing? Conversely, can you keep confidential information private? How often can and do you listen more than you speak in conversations with your peers? How do you handle 'bad news' when you receive it?

Relationships

BUCKSWOOD SCHOOL
PREFECT HANDBOOK 2017/18

What is the level of trust and respectful feelings you have with each of your peers?
How easy or difficult is it for you to initiate new relationships or deepen existing relationships?

Persuasion

How persuasive and influential are you? Under what circumstances can you persuade others to your point of view? To what extent do people value your opinion and follow your lead?

Adaptability

To what degree can you relinquish control? When is it easy and when difficult for you to embrace change? How do you react when things don't go as planned?

Teamwork

To what extent do you value working cooperatively as part of a group? How do you promote teamwork among those you lead? In what ways do you work collaboratively with your peers? How do you handle team conflict?

Decision-making

How comfortable are you with having to make the 'final decision' on things? Do you have any tendency to decide too quickly without due consideration or, conversely, to gather data, analyse and ponder endlessly and be unable to decide? In what areas do you struggle with making firm decisions and standing up for what you believe?
