

Buckswood Boarding News

Our boarders excelled themselves at this year's International Day. They have worked tirelessly all week to prepare the stands for their nationalities and have cooked up a storm in the kitchens. There were extraordinary smells and sights to behold as our Sports Hall was transformed into a colourful representation of global society. This week has also seen the official start of our Summer Activities Programme after school. There is so much to see and do for our boarders this term!

School house News

School House have had a fun packed week!

The juniors have been enjoying their WellFit sessions. This week they were in the pool learning all about how to lifeguard and on Wednesday they were out and about in the Buckswood woodland making sausages on a fire built with their own hands.

It has been a great week for sporting activities. The whole house have embraced the Summer Activities Programme and are now enjoying all the sports and other activities that are on offer after school. This week's House activities have been cricket and a game of King of the Court. It has been a lot of fun.

On Friday, Matthew enjoyed a Friday night meal with some of his friends as he utilised our new Upper 6th Leave initiative. This week the IB exams began. Well done to Tomi and Daniel who made it through their first exam and came out smiling.

This Sunday's mountain biking trip to Bedgebury was incredibly well received and those from School House who went had a thoroughly amazing time. There were lots of smiles in our House meeting during the evening. Miss Rebecca even helped one of our newest members to practice riding a bike!

A huge thank you to the whole house who were so enthusiastic and participative during International Day.

Kipling News

Last week, students from Kipling helped to decorate the dining room for Hawaiian night. This got the house enthused for dancing all evening in house. Augustin is our new Hawaiian dancer!

Lots of boys have been attending after school and evening activities. They especially love playing volleyball with students from other houses.

On Friday evening we played a new game 'Who ate all the bread?'. Our bread mysteriously disappeared and students spent the evening trying to work out who took it!

On Sunday, Julien attended the mountain biking trip. He led the younger students and they all finished the trail in good time.

Milne News

It was an action packed weekend for Milne House.

On Friday night we all went to the cinema to watch the latest Avengers film, Endgame. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all of the boys.

On Saturday they took part in International Day where the boys got to demonstrate their culinary skills, and for some their eating skills!

On Sunday Sean and Kaito had a fantastic time on the mountain biking trip to Bedgebury!

Wells News

Wells house have started to get into the exam season, with IB having their first exam so far. Good luck to all students who have exams coming up over the next couple of weeks!

Many students helped out with international day in one way or another - lots wore national dress, some cooked, others helped on the stalls.

The new students have settled in well and are forming strong friendship groups within the house and in the wider school community.

All students got involved with the themed dinner of Hawaii - thank you to those students who helped to set up.

The first house activity of tea drinking on Thursday night was a roaring success and one that we hope to repeat in the future. It was a good way for the house to bond and relax after a busy day.

Rowling News

With the Exams in full swing we have put the emphasis on Work hard, Play hard. Ensuring that each student is managing their time wisely and effectively is paramount to successful exam results and any successful revision programmes.

Throughout the week, to serve as a break from studies we had 2 Champions League nights, both Semi Finals: Liverpool vs Barcelona and Tottenham vs Ajax. The weekend neared and preparation for International Day started, we are able to boast many different nationalities and cultures and it was great to experience a taste so many dishes from the students' home nations. They were so enthused to "Show off" which was great and I must say myself and Mr. Graham were lucky enough to try all of the foods available; we may have a few master chefs on our hands.

Oaks News

Last week, Oaks House have been helping to prepare for International Day. Some of the girls helped to make a sign with lots of different flags. The girls enjoyed the day where they were able to make food from their nations and also sample food from other nationalities.

Janika, Thomasina and Anais have joined an external boy's Futsal team and are practising hard for an upcoming tournament.

Students have been working hard in school for their upcoming exams.

Lodge News

Three girls from Guestling Lodge took part in a rounders match against Claremont School. Esther was made "woman of the match" whilst Yuliia scored some rounders having never played previously. All the girls from Guestling Lodge were involved in International Day, either preparing food or selling it - they made some good profits for charity as well as enjoying the experience.
